

GROUP VISITS

THE GROVE MUSEUM

Welcome to the group visitor information for the Grove Museum of Victorian Life in Ramsey. Here you will find everything you need to plan a visit.

The Grove Museum of Victorian Life tells the story of the Gibb family and their Victorian summer retreat, which later became their permanent residence and family home. Beautifully preserved to provide an intriguing insight into life in the Victorian and Edwardian eras, a visit to the house, outbuildings and country garden is like stepping back in time.

Things to see and do:

- Listen to the story of the 'Gibbs of the Grove'
- Explore the sumptuous rooms throughout the house
- See stunning Victorian furniture, fashion and fineries
- Learn about the life of a scullery maid
- Ring the servant bells
- Watch the bees making honey
- Discover early farm equipment including a horse drawn threshing mill
- Explore the small wood and gardens
- Play croquet on the lawn
- Feed the ducks and see the flock of Manx Loaghtan sheep
