

GROUP VISITS

THE OLD HOUSE OF KEYS

Welcome to the group visitor information for the Old House of Keys situated in Castletown. Here you will find everything you need to plan a visit.

The Old House of Keys is the former home of the Manx Parliament and centre of nineteenth century political life on the Isle of Man. Animated portraits of Keys members and a simulated model of Mr Speaker bring the debating chamber to life. The Secretary of the House welcomes you to join in the debates on law in this fun, participatory experience.

Things to see and do:

- Meet the costumed secretary of this historic building
- Take a seat in the finely restored debating chamber
- Watch as the talking head of Mr Speaker and animated portraits of the Members of the House come to life
- Discover how democracy developed on the Isle of Man
- Listen carefully as Mr Speaker demands 'order!'
- Shape the Island's future and introduce motorcycle racing to the Island's open roads
- Discover how democracy developed on the Isle of Man
- Decide whether women should get the vote

GROUP VISITS

THE OLD HOUSE OF KEYS

- Shout 'aye' for those in favour and 'no' for those against!

Opening hours 2018

Sittings take place at 11.00 and 14.45 daily from 30 March to 4 November.

The maximum group size per sitting is 25 adults.

Please note that other timings and back-to-back sittings can be arranged on request for groups. Please provide at least two working days' notice for this.

Timing your visit

A sitting lasts for 45 minutes with time at the end for any questions your group might have.

Manx National Heritage recommends that a visit to the Old House of Keys is timed to coincide with other attractions within walking distance in Castletown:

- Castle Rushen, one of the world's best preserved medieval castles
- The Nautical Museum, where you can discover the story of the late Captain George Quayle, his eccentric boathouse and his most significant surviving creation the Peggy
- The Old Grammar School where rows of benches and desks are a reminder of early Victorian school days

A visit to the Old House of Keys can also be easily combined with a visit to Rushen Abbey in neighbouring Ballasalla or the National Folk Museum at Cregneash which is a ten minute drive away.

2018 admission prices

£5 per adult*

*To qualify for the pre-booked group rate, groups must consist of at least 15 people and must be paid for 7 days in advance.

Holiday passes providing multi-site admission can be pre-booked at a discounted rate of £22 for groups and are also available at the standard price of £25 from all Manx National Heritage sites. Passes must be shown on entry to each site.
