

GROUP VISITS

RUSHEN ABBEY

Welcome to the group visitor information for Rushen Abbey. Here you will find everything you need to plan a visit.

Rushen Abbey was gifted by King Olaf I for use as a monastery in 1134. Today the remains for the Abbey sit in the tranquil surroundings of the Abbey Gardens. The Interpretation Centre tells its story from medieval times through to the present day.

Don't miss:

- Stories of the famous strawberry and cream tea dances
- School mistress Miss Bell Anne Stowell
- The Chronicles of Mann, the earliest written account of the Isle of Man
- Hands on fun like dressing up as a monk or having a go at archaeology
- A walk to the 14th century Monks' Bridge in Silverdale Glen
- Yummy food in the Abbey Restaurant – n.b. advisable to book in advance

RUSHEN ABBEY

Opening hours 2018

30 March to 25 May, 10am – 4pm

26 May to 2 September, 10am – 5pm

3 September to 4 November, 10am – 4pm

Timing your visit

A typical visit lasts between 1 to 1½ hours.

We recommend that a visit to Rushen Abbey is timed to coincide with other attractions in the area:

- Castle Rushen, one of the world's best preserved medieval castles
- The Nautical Museum, where you can discover the story of the late Captain George Quayle, his eccentric boathouse and his most significant surviving creation the Peggy
- The Old Grammar School, where rows of benches and desks are a reminder of early Victorian school days
- The Old House of Keys, the former home of the Manx Parliament

Admission prices 2018

£6 per adult*

*To qualify for the pre-booked group rate, groups must consist of at least 15 people and be booked 7 days in advance.

Holiday Passes providing multi-site admission can be purchased in at least a week in advance at a discounted group rate of £22 per adult and are also available at the standard price of £25 from all Manx National Heritage sites. Valid passes must be shown on entry to each site.

A Go Explore Heritage is also available to groups of 20 or more which offers, during normal operating times, unlimited access to Manx National Heritage sites and unlimited travel on the heritage railways, buses and Douglas horse trams for up to 5 days.

Manx National Heritage has reciprocal agreements with a number of heritage organisations such as the National Trust, English Heritage and CADW amongst others, providing free or reduced admission on presentation of a valid membership card. Refunds are not available for tickets purchased.
