

Welcome to the group visitor information for the House of Manannan, situated on Peel Quayside. Here you will find everything you need to plan a visit.

At the House of Manannan, the Island's mythological sea god, Manannan, welcomes you to his fascinating Kingdom and guides you through the Island's rich Celtic, Vikings and Maritime past.

- Explore the Kingdom of Man gallery
- Step inside a Celtic roundhouse and listen to Egodonas, our Celtic storyteller
- See Manannan speak from the gently falling waters of Spooyt Vane
- Stroll through a Viking longhouse from Cronk-ny-Merriu
- See the mist rising through stone crosses and listen to stories which span a thousand years
- Join the crew of Odin's Raven Viking longship as they return from the battle of Clontarf
- Explore 19th Century Peel quayside and discover the sights and smells of a Manx Kipper yard
- Walk through the quayside warehouse and discover 'sailmakers', 'coopers' and 'chandlers shops'
- Visit 'Spit Corner', eavesdrop on conversations and the superstitions of the fisherfolk
- Enjoy our regular programme of events and exhibitions

Opening hours 2023

Open daily all year, 9.30am to 4.30pm. Closed Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day.

Timing your visit

A typical visit lasts around 2 hours. During the summer months, we recommend that a visit to the House of Manannan is timed to coincide with a visit to nearby Peel Castle.
